

STINGER SPORTS

March 21, 1985

PRESS RELEASE

CONCORDIA WRESTLERS MEET CUBAN NATIONAL TEAM

Concordia University will have the privilege of representing Canada in an International free-style wrestling competition versus the Cuban National team on Tuesday, March 26th.

The event is being sponsored by the Quebec Wrestling Federation and Concordia University. The matches will get underway at 7 p.m. at the Concordia Athletics Complex on the Loyola Campus.

Concordia University, Canada's 1983-84 C.I.A.U. National Wrestling Championship team and 1984-85 Co-champions will be led by Pat Sullivan (68k), twice Canadian University 'Wrestler of the Year' and Gold Medalist; Graham Dadswell (74k) Gold Medal Winner C.I.A.U. Championship; Mike Sullivan (62k), Serge Marcil (82k) and Mike Enos (90k), Silver Medal winners C.I.A.U. Championship. The team will also feature Concordia student Clark Davis (100k), 4th place Los Angeles Olympics; Concordia Alumnus Gary Kallos (H/W) and Montreal Wrestling Club member David Mendelsohn (57k). The team will be coached by Concordia's head coach Victor Zilberman, assisted by Dr. D. Marsi with George Short serving as the team's administrator.

The Cuban team, coached by Isidro Conedo and Juan Cavellero will be led by Raul Cascaret (74k) who ranked 2nd in the 1982 World Championships and 5th in 1983 at 68k, also Rafael Torres (57k) who came 4th in the 1983 World Championships.

Following the competition at Concordia the Cuban wrestlers will participate in the World Cup Championship meet which is to take place in Toledo, Ohio, March 29th to 31st.